

4th Annual Trempealeau County Soil Health Field Day

April 5, 2018 from 10:00AM to 3:00PM

High Hillside Acres (George & Mary Gierok Family Farm)
W26747 Bugby Lane, Independence, WI 54747

Agenda

MORNING SESSION: 10:00–12:15

- Managed Grazing for Healthy Soils
George & Mary Gierok, High Hillside Acres
Brad Sirianni, Western Technical College
Keys to Better Soil, Plant, Animal & Financial Health
Applying Grazing Management Systems
- Exploring Alternative Crops
Steve Okonek, UW-Extension

LUNCH (Free): 12:15-12:45

Door Prizes Giveaway

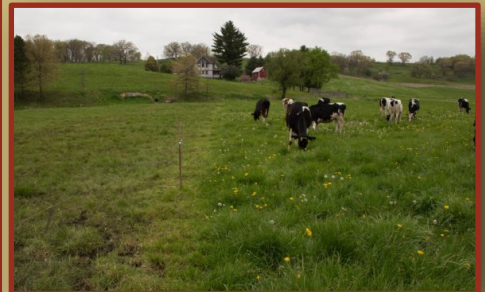

AFTERNOON SESSION: 12:45-3:00

- Farm Planning for Extreme Rain Events
NRCS Rainfall Simulation Trailer
- Forestry Restoration, Erosion Control & Managing Invasives
Ian Remus, Trempealeau County Forester
Ben Anderson, County Conservationist
- Panel Discussion: Current Challenges in Farming
Discovery Farms and Diverse Group of Local Farmers
Discovery Farms' Nitrogen Use Efficiency Project

Schedule subject to change

FREE T-SHIRT

First 75
People

Discover How to Build Healthy Soil with Managed Grazing!

Event Sponsored By:

