

Wolf Chapter of WWOA
Sponsored Forestry Management Seminar
Open to Area Chapters

When: Sat., March 14, 8:30-noon (Snow date, Sat., March 21)

Where: Mosquito Hill Nature Center
N3880 Rogers Rd., New London, WI 54961

Description: Forestry Management: Financial Matters &
Tax Issues.* Presented by Carl Barkow, Forest Business Consultants

Please register via email by Wed., Mar. 4

attending _____

Name(s) _____

Send to dschroederfisher3@gmail.com or call 920-851-2783

Event open to area members of the Wisconsin Woodland Owners. Friends/neighbors owning woodlands are invited as well. Please spread the word!

The Chapter is asking for a donation of $5.00/family to cover facility rental and travel costs. Cash payment at the door. Wolf River members who've already paid 2020 membership dues can forego this donation.

*Discussed will be:

- issues concerning forest management and Silviculture, main forest inventory indicators used
- harvesting and timber sales
- timber accounting and taxation
- IRS Form T and other IRS forms that impact the woodland owner
- record keeping and other IRS issues
- casualty losses as it impacts the woodland owner

Carl's resume includes a B.S. degree in Forestry, UW-Stevens Point, M.S. degree in Accounting, UW- Whitewater.

He has 8 years of forestry consulting experience, and is a retired IRS Agent with over 32 years in the federal government.